

Goods, services, ideas

Left → middle → right:
what does each customer get?

LOOK → SAY → EXPLAIN

Goods, services, ideas

GOOD

SERVICE

IDEA

Shoes = good. Car wash = service.
Recycling campaign = idea.

Before the 2.x assessment

Open Word. Find one command from 2.1–2.4 using Search. Then return to your assessment instructions.

READ THE TASK → FIND THE COMMAND → CHECK THE RESULT

One function, one purpose

Which marketing function is happening here? What job does it do?

LOOK → SAY → EXPLAIN

One function, one purpose

MARKETING-INFORMATION MANAGEMENT

Feedback gives the business evidence for a decision.

Start Word 3.x

Read the instruction first. Highlight the action verb.
Find that command in Word before changing the document.

READ THE TASK → FIND THE COMMAND → CHECK THE RESULT

Function and marketing concept

How could this choice satisfy a customer want and help the business earn a profit?

LOOK → SAY → EXPLAIN

Function and marketing concept

MARKETING CONCEPT

Connect a relevant customer need or want to company goals and profit.

Word 3.x: spot the target

What must the finished document look like? Point to the instruction that tells you.

READ THE TASK → FIND THE COMMAND → CHECK THE RESULT

A specific example

Name one action this business could take. How does that show the function?

LOOK → SAY → EXPLAIN

A specific example

EXAMPLE + WHY

A concrete action is stronger than only naming a function.

Word 3.x: troubleshoot

A command is missing from the pictured menu.
What will you search for?

READ THE TASK → FIND THE COMMAND → CHECK THE RESULT

Explain it in one minute

Function → purpose →
marketing concept →
example. Which link needs more work?

LOOK → SAY → EXPLAIN

Explain it in one minute

PURPOSE / CONNECTION / EXAMPLE

Review the three textbook requirements before any presentation.

Word 3.x: check and continue

Find one result you are confident in and one step you want to verify.

READ THE TASK → FIND THE COMMAND → CHECK THE RESULT